Reigning Grace Ranch Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

SCOTTSDALE, AZ – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of Reigning Grace Ranch of Scottsdale, AZ.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Reigning Grace Ranch joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 14.6 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to the restoration of rescued horses, redemption of the family, and bringing hope into the community by creating a sustainable future in an authentic Christian ranch environment,” said Michael Martin, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2011, Reigning Grace Ranch’s (<https://azrgr.org/>) focus is on helping children, families and first responders heal, strengthen and empower their future — with their horse companions at their side every step of the way. Reigning Grace Ranch uses biblical values to create an authentic experiential working ranch environment, to heal and strengthen their community through Christian-based mentorship and life-on-life activities.
